Re: Your Exam Results

Congratulations, Carolina!

I just saw your exam results. Let me be the first to congratulate you on becoming the first National rank BJCP judge in South America. This is an impressive accomplishment; you should be very proud.

Your rank puts you in the top 15% of active judges in the program. It also means that the BJCP considers you a leader and mentor for other judges, not only in South America, but in the entire program.

I'm sorry the results took so long to process, but I hope they were worth the wait. My only regret is that it was not processed in time for me to present you with your National pin in person.

I look forward to you leading the development of better beer judges in South America.

Best Wishes,

Gordon Strong
BJCP President
